COMPLAINT

NOW COMES Plaintiff, Sulli Mariah Lee, and for a Complaint against Defendant, Diversified Consultants, Inc., alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff states a claim against Diversified Consultants, Inc. for violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, codified 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq. (hereinafter “FDCPA”), which was enacted in 1978.

2. Congress stated its findings and purpose of the FDCPA:

(a) Abusive practices

There is abundant evidence of the use of abusive, deceptive, and unfair debt collection practices by many debt collectors. Abusive debt collection practices contribute to the number of personal bankruptcies, to marital instability, to the loss of jobs, and to invasions of individual privacy.

(b) Inadequacy of laws

Existing laws and procedures for redressing these injuries are inadequate to protect consumers.

(c) Available non-abusive collection methods

Means other than misrepresentation or other abusive debt collection practices are available for the effective collection of debts.

(d) Interstate commerce

Abusive debt collection practices are carried on to a substantial extent in interstate commerce and through means and instrumentalities of such commerce. Even where abusive debt collection practices are purely intrastate in character, they nevertheless directly affect interstate commerce.

(e) Purposes

It is the purpose of this title to eliminate abusive debt collection practices by debt collectors, to insure that those debt collectors who refrain from using abusive debt collection practices are not competitively disadvantaged, and to promote consistent State action to protect consumers against debt collection abuses.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. Jurisdiction of this court arises pursuant to 15 U.S.C. 1692k(d), which states that such actions may be brought and heard before "any appropriate United States district court without regard to the amount in controversy.

4. Defendant conducts business in the state of Oklahoma; therefore, personal jurisdiction is established.

5. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1391(b)(2).

STANDING

6. Plaintiff has suffered an injury in fact that is traceable to Defendant's conduct and that is likely to be redressed by a favorable decision in this matter.

7. Specifically, Plaintiff suffered a concrete injury to reputation and increased insurance premiums as a result of Defendant's communication of false information to third parties in connection with its attempt to collect an alleged debt from Plaintiff.

PARTIES

8. Plaintiff is a natural person who resides in Tulsa, County of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

9. Plaintiff is a consumer as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. 1692a(3), and according to Defendant, Plaintiff allegedly owes a debt as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. 1692a(5).

10. Defendant is a debt collector as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. 1692a(6), and sought to collect a consumer debt from Plaintiff.

11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendant is a collections business with an office in Jacksonville, Florida.

12. Upon information and belief, Defendant uses interstate mail, reports on consumer credit reports, and makes telephone calls to consumers attempting to collect on defaulted consumer debt.

13. Defendant acted through its agents, employees, officers, members, directors, heirs, successors, assigns, principals, trustees, sureties, subrogees, representatives, and insurers.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

14. In early 2016, Plaintiff noticed that her credit score had dropped and received a notice regarding increased insurance premiums. She checked her credit report and noticed that Defendant had placed an account relating to an alleged debt from AT&T on her credit report that did not belong to her. Plaintiff later determined that this account belonged to a person with the same name as her husband that lived in Texas, a state where Plaintiff, nor her husband, has never resided.

15. Plaintiff sent a letter to Defendant advising Defendant that she disputed the alleged debt.

16. On January 28, 2016, Defendant wrote back to Plaintiff, acknowledging her dispute.

17. However, on February 1, 2016, Defendant reported the alleged debt to Plaintiff's credit reports, but failed to communicate that the debt had been disputed by the consumer Plaintiff.

18. Credit reporting by a debt collector constitutes an attempt to collect a debt. See, e.g., Rivera v. Bank One, 145 F.R.D. 614, 623 (D.P.R. 1993) (a creditor's report of a debt to a consumer reporting agency is a "powerful tool, designed in part to wrench compliance with payment terms from its cardholder").

19. Defendant materially lowered Plaintiff's credit score by failing to note Plaintiff's dispute.

20. A debt reported without dispute results in a much lower credit score than a report of both the debt and the dispute. Saunders v. Branch Banking and Trust Co. of VA, 526 F. 3d 142, 146-47 (4th Cir. 2008).

21. 15 U.S.C. § 1692e of the FDCPA provides as follows:

False or misleading representations. A debt collector may not use any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt. Without limiting the general application of the foregoing, the following conduct is a violation of this section: . . .

(8) Communicating or threatening to communicate to any person credit information which is known or which should be known to be false, including the failure to communicate that a disputed debt is disputed. . . .

22. By February 1, 2016, Defendant knew that Plaintiff had disputed the alleged debt because Defendant had written to Plaintiff acknowledging the dispute.

23. Even though Defendant knew prior to February 1, 2016, that Plaintiff disputed owing the alleged debt, Defendant failed to thereafter communicate the fact of Plaintiff's dispute to the credit reporting agencies to which Defendant communicated other information regarding the alleged debt, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(8).

24. Plaintiff has suffered actual damages as a result of these illegal collection communications by Defendant in the form of increased insurance premiums, anger and frustration, amongst other negative emotions.

COUNT I
DEFENDANT VIOLATED THE FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT,
(FDCPA), 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq.

25. Defendant violated §1692e(8) of the FDCPA by failing to communicate that a disputed debt is disputed to Plaintiff's credit reporting bureaus.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Sulli Mariah Lee, respectfully prays that judgment be entered against Defendant, Diversified Consultants, Inc., for the following:

- a) Statutory damages of $1,000.00, pursuant to the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. 1692k;
 - b) Actual damages pursuant to the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. 1692k;
 - c) Costs and reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. 1692k;
- and
- d) Any other relief that this court deems to be just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
